About the FSPO

The Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman (FSPO) was established to resolve complaints from consumers, including small businesses and other organisations, against financial service providers or pension providers.

The FSPO provides an independent, fair, impartial, confidential and free service to resolve complaints through either informal mediation or formal investigation and adjudication. When a consumer is unable to resolve a complaint or dispute with a financial service provider or pension provider, they can refer their complaint to the FSPO.

More information about the FSPO is available at www.fspo.ie, including:

The FSPO is an equal opportunities employer and we welcome applications from across the spectrum of society to join our open, supportive organisation and reflect the diversity of our service users.

About this competition

The FSPO is seeking to recruit suitable candidates to be placed on a panel for the role of Senior Manager in the Investigation Services Directorate at Assistant Principal Officer Grade.

This position is offered on a specified purpose contract basis of approximately 36 months to cover the absence of a permanent employee.

The FSPO expects to establish a panel from this campaign. Successful candidates will be placed on a panel from which appointments may be made. Vacancies will be offered to candidates placed on the panel based on the Order of Merit from interview and written assessment and/or other test of capability to fulfil the requirements of the role. Once an offer of appointment has been accepted or rejected by a candidate, a candidate will be removed from the panel and no further offers of appointment will be made to that candidate. Any panel formed as part of this campaign which is not exhausted through appointment of candidates to current or future vacancies will expire 1 year from the date of creation of the panel.

Successful candidates, in accordance with the Order of Merit, may be offered alternative roles at the grade of Assistant Principal Officer in other areas of the FSPO, should the FSPO identify vacancies suitable to the requirements for this competition while the panel is in place. If a candidate rejects an offer of an alternative role within the FSPO, that candidate will remain on the panel for the role of Senior Manager, Investigation Services Directorate.

About the Senior Manager, Investigation Services Role

The Senior Manager, operating at Assistant Principal Officer level, is a senior managerial grade and is a critical post in terms of delivery of the organisation's strategic plan and ensuring quality service delivery to the public.

The successful candidate will report directly to the Director of Investigation Services (the Director) and will work closely with other senior managerial staff in the Investigation Services Directorate (the Directorate). The successful candidate will also be expected to liaise, interact and engage within the wider FSPO management framework.

The Senior Manager will be involved in the management and delivery of the FSPO's service, the analysis of complex issues that arise on complaint files in the Directorate, provision of guidance, managing, leading and motivating teams of people, delivering programmes and communicating and engaging with stakeholders. The successful candidate will also be required to provide strong leadership to support the ongoing quality of the service, including meeting challenging key performance indicators.

Relationship building and collaboration are key to this role and office attendance of a minimum of two days per week will be required. Notwithstanding that, candidates are eligible to apply for a hybrid working arrangement of up to three days' home working. See 'Assignment/Location' below.

In collaboration with the Director and senior managerial staff in the Directorate, specific key responsibilities will include:

- Lead, develop and manage a team of Higher Executive Officers and where required, Executive Officers, to progress assigned complaint caseloads effectively and efficiently within stipulated timeframes.
- Lead, oversee and manage the delivery of key complaint documentation, including high quality summaries of complaint and other key complaint-related documentation, by Higher Executive Officers and Executive Officers within the Directorate. The Summary of Complaint articulates the specific conduct complained of to the FSPO, to which the respondent provider must answer. This incorporates a comprehensive and appropriate "Schedule of Questions" and "Schedule of Evidence Required" suitable to gathering of necessary detail and evidence, for the effective progression of the investigation of the individual complaint.

- Oversight and management of critical key performance indicators (KPIs) through the use of tools such as PowerBI.
- Develop and mentor Higher Executive Officers and where required, Executive Officers, to reach their optimum in contributing to the goals, objectives and Directorate specific KPIs.
- Manage the performance of the Investigation Services team and individual team members including the management of Probation and the Performance Management and Development System (PMDS).
- Provide on-going feedback, conducting regular team meetings, and furnishing appropriate information including technical guidance.
- Provide advice and support to the Director and the wider Senior Management team on relevant matters.
- Contribute to the development of the Directorate's workplan commitments, deliverables, strategic goals, and objectives, and driving successful implementation.
- Contribute to and support a training programme within the Directorate, assisting in the development and delivery of training, and other learning initiatives.
- Contribute to the development and achievement of the strategic goals of the FSPO generally, and divisional objectives in particular, by participating in cross-divisional projects and progressing potential strategic projects and change management programmes.
- Interpreting and applying the provisions of the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman Act 2017 (as amended).
- Researching and keeping abreast of relevant legislation and regulation.
- Dealing efficiently with administrative duties as required.

- Adhering to the FSPO's values and processes.
- Any other duties as assigned by the Ombudsman, Deputy Ombudsman or Director of Investigation Services from time to time.

The responsibilities outlined in this job description should not be regarded as comprehensive in scope and may be added to or altered as required, in line with the requirements of the FSPO. The duties appropriate to the post will be determined by the Ombudsman and may cover a range of activities allowing for maximum flexibility according to the needs of the organisation appropriate to the grade of Assistant Principal Officer.

Experience, Qualifications & Personal Qualities Required

Experience, Qualifications & Personal Qualities Required

Personal Qualities Required

In order to be effective in the role of Senior Manager (Assistant Principal) in the FSPO, the successful candidate should have:

- The ability to work under pressure to tight deadlines
- Analytical skills, attention to detail, good judgement, and problem-solving skills
- The ability to take a strategic approach in the delivery of key objectives
- The ability to foster a positive working relationship with colleagues and to lead and work on teams
- The confidence to liaise with senior personnel, legal and other professionals and to provide collaborative leadership and guidance to more junior staff
- A commitment to the delivery of quality public service and
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills

Essential Requirements

Candidates, on or before 02 January 2026, must meet with 1 or 2 AND must meet i, ii, and iii:

1. A) Have been called to the Bar and be enrolled as a Barrister in the State or have been admitted and be enrolled as a Solicitor in the State

AND

1. B) Have practiced as a Barrister or Solicitor in the State for not less than five years.

OR

2. A) Hold a qualification at Level 8 or higher on the National Framework of Qualifications (NFQ) OR an equivalent professional qualification

AND

2. B) Have a minimum of 8 years demonstratable professional experience relevant to the role.

AND

Candidates must also have the necessary experience with a record of achievement that demonstrates their capacity to deliver in this challenging role including:

- i. Experience of analysing, evaluating and integrating a range of complex information such as contractual, legislative or regulatory provisions, in a rational and objective manner,
- ii. Experience demonstrating good judgement and sound decision-making,
- iii. Excellent writing skills and attention to detail as evidenced in their application form and/or written exercise.

In addition to the specific requirements set out above, candidates must be able to demonstrate that they possess the competencies identified for effective performance at Assistant Principal Officer level as set out in Appendix A.

Desirable Requirements

In addition to the above essential requirements, it would be a decided advantage for candidates to have some, or all of the following:

- Relevant experience in the financial services or pensions sectors
- Familiarity with financial services and pensions legislative and regulatory provisions and case law or a demonstrated ability to quickly develop this and a desire and ability to keep up to date with developments in these areas
- IT skills and knowledge of Microsoft Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint, Outlook and MS Teams
- Demonstrable evidence of ongoing professional and personal development
- Experience of working within a judicial, quasi-judicial environment or similar, with experience of adherence to the principles of fair procedure and the ability to make evidence-based decisions

- Demonstrable knowledge and appreciation of the statutory, governance and policy framework within which the FSPO operates

An invitation to tests, interview or any element of the selection process is not acceptance of eligibility. Eligibility may not be confirmed until the final stage of the process, therefore, candidates who do not possess the essential requirements, on the closing date of 02 January 2026, and who nevertheless proceed with their application, are putting themselves to unnecessary effort/expense and will not be offered a position from this campaign. Candidates who are unable to show that they hold the qualifications outlined in their application may be eliminated from the campaign at any stage.

Other Eligibility Criteria

Eligibility to compete and certain restrictions on eligibility:

Candidates must, by the date of any job offer, be:

- f) A non-EEA citizen who is a parent of a dependent child who is a citizen of, and resident in, an EEA member state or the UK or Switzerland and has a stamp 4 visa.

Collective Agreement: Redundancy Payments to Public Servants

The Department of Public Expenditure and Reform letter dated 28 June 2012 to Personnel Officers introduced, with effect from 1 June 2012, a Collective Agreement which had been reached between the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform and the Public Services Committee of the ICTU in relation to ex-gratia Redundancy Payments to Public Servants. It is a condition of the Collective Agreement that persons availing of the agreement will not be eligible for re-employment in the Public Service by any Public Service body (as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 – 2011) for a period of 2 years from termination of the employment. People who availed of this scheme and who may be successful in this competition will have to prove their eligibility (expiry of period of non-eligibility).

Incentivised Scheme for Early Retirement (ISER)

It is a condition of the Incentivised Scheme for Early Retirement (ISER) as set out in Department of Finance Circular 12/09 that retirees, under that Scheme, are not eligible to apply for another position in the same employment or the same sector. Therefore, such retirees may not apply for this position.

Department of Health and Children Circular (7/2010)

The Department of Health Circular 7/2010 dated 1 November 2010 introduced a Targeted Voluntary Early Retirement (VER) Scheme and Voluntary Redundancy Schemes (VRS). It is a condition of the VER scheme that persons availing of the scheme will not be eligible for re-employment in the public health sector or in the wider Public Service or in a body wholly or mainly funded from public money. The same prohibition on re-employment applies under the VRS, except that the prohibition is for a period of 7 years. People who availed of the VER scheme are not eligible to compete in this competition. People who availed of the VRS scheme and who may be successful in this competition will have to prove their eligibility (expiry of period of non-eligibility).

Department of Environment, Community and Local Government (Circular Letter LG(P) 06/2013)

The Department of Environment, Community & Local Government Circular Letter LG(P) 06/2013 introduced a Voluntary Redundancy Scheme for Local Authorities. In accordance with the terms of the Collective Agreement: Redundancy Payments to Public Servants, dated 28 June 2012 as detailed above, it is a specific condition of that VER Scheme that persons will not be eligible for re-employment in any Public Service body [as defined by the Financial Emergency Measures in the Public Interest Acts 2009 – 2011 and the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012] for a period of 2 years from their date of departure under this Scheme. These conditions also apply in the case of engagement/employment on a contract for service basis (either as a contractor or as an employee of a contractor).

Declaration

Applicants will be required to declare whether they have previously availed of a Public Service scheme of incentivised early retirement. Applicants will also be required to declare any entitlements to a Public Service pension benefit (in payment or preserved) from any other Public Service employment and/or where they have received a payment-in-lieu in respect of service in any Public Service employment.

Principal Conditions of Service

General

While it is envisaged that appointment arising from this competition will be to a full-time, fixed-term position in the public service (following an appropriate initial probationary period), the FSPO reserves the right to use the panel formed from this competition to fill other vacancies which may arise.

Pay

The salary and terms and conditions for an Assistant Principal Officer are those, as set out below, that currently apply to Assistant Principal Officer (Standard Scale PPC) in the public service.

Assistant Principal Officer (PPC)

€81,475 €84,475 €87,518 €90,569 €93,617 €95,375 €98,449¹ €101,535²

Long service increments may be payable after 3 (LSI1) and 6 (LSI2) years' satisfactory service at the maximum of the scale.

Candidates should note that entry will be at the minimum of the salary scale and will not be subject to negotiation, and the rate of remuneration may be adjusted from time to time in line with Government pay policy. Increments may be awarded subject to satisfactory performance, in line with Government pay policy.

Important Note

Different terms and conditions may apply if, immediately prior to appointment, the appointee is already a serving Civil Servant or Public Servant.

Tenure

The appointment will be on a specified purpose contract basis of approximately 36 months to cover the absence of a permanent employee.

The appointee will be required to serve a 6-month probationary period.

Assignment / Location

The successful candidate's place of work will be the FSPO's offices at Lincoln House, Dublin 2. Presently FSPO staff can apply to work remotely for up to three days per week. This is subject to business needs, performance, and the requirements of the role. Future working arrangements will be determined by the broader public service policy framework.

When required to travel on official duty the appointee will be paid appropriate travelling expenses and subsistence allowances, subject to normal public service regulations.

Hours of Attendance

Hours of attendance will be fixed from time to time but will amount to not less than 43 hours and 15 minutes gross per week. The successful candidate will be required to work such additional hours from time to time as may be reasonable and necessary for the proper performance of his/her duties subject to the limits set down in the working time regulations. The rate of remuneration payable covers any extra attendance requirement that may arise from time to time.

Annual Leave

The annual leave allowance for the position of Assistant Principal Officer is 30 days. This allowance is subject to the usual conditions regarding the granting of annual leave in the Civil Service, is based on a five-day week and is exclusive of the usual public holidays.

Health

A candidate for, and any person holding the office, must be fully competent and capable of undertaking the duties attached to the office and be in a state of health such as would indicate a reasonable prospect of ability to render regular and efficient service.

Sick Leave

Pay during properly certified sick absence, provided there is no evidence of permanent disability for service, will apply on a pro-rata basis, in accordance with the provisions of the sick leave circulars.

Appointees who will be paying the Class A rate of PRSI, will be required to sign a mandate authorising the Department of Social Protection to pay any benefits due under the Social Welfare Acts direct to the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman. Payment of salary during illness will be subject to the appointee making the necessary claims for social insurance benefit to the Department of Social Protection within the required time limits.

Superannuation and Retirement

The successful candidate will be offered the appropriate superannuation terms and conditions as prevailing in the public service, at the time of being offered an appointment. In general, and except for candidates who have worked in a pensionable (non-single scheme terms) public service job in the 26 weeks prior to appointment (see paragraph D below), this means being offered appointment based on membership of the Single Public Service Pension Scheme (Single Scheme). Key provisions attaching to membership of the Single Scheme are as follows:

A. Pensionable Age

The minimum age at which retirement benefits are payable is the same as the age of eligibility for the State Pension, currently 66 years.

B. Retirement Age

Scheme members must retire at the age of 70.

C. Pension Abatement

If the appointee was previously employed in the Civil/Public Service and is in receipt of a pension from the Civil/Public Service normal abatement rules will apply.

However, if the appointee was previously employed in the Civil/Public Service and awarded a pension under voluntary early retirement arrangements (other than the Incentivised Scheme of Early Retirement (ISER) or the Department of Health Circular 7/2010 VER/VRS which, as indicated above, renders a person ineligible for the competition) the entitlement to that pension will cease with effect from the date of reappointment. Special arrangements will however, be made for the reckoning of previous service given by the appointee for the purpose of any future superannuation award for which the appointee may be eligible.

If the appointee was previously employed in the Civil Service or in the Public Service, please note that the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and Other Provisions) Act 2012 includes a provision which extends abatement of pension for all Civil and Public Servants who are re-employed where a Public Service pension is in payment. This provision to apply abatement across the wider public service came into effect on 1 November 2012.

This may have pension implications for any person appointed to this position who is currently in receipt of a Civil or Public Service pension or has a preserved Civil or Public Service pension which will come into payment during his/her employment in this position.

Department of Education and Skills Early Retirement Scheme for Teachers
Circular 102/2007

The Department of Education and Skills introduced an Early Retirement Scheme for Teachers. It is a condition of the Early Retirement Scheme that with the exception of the situations set out in paragraphs 10.2 and 10.3 of the relevant circular documentation, and with those exceptions only, if a teacher accepts early retirement under Strands 1, 2 or 3 of this scheme and is subsequently employed in any capacity in any area of the public sector, payment of pension to that person under the scheme will immediately cease. Pension payments will, however, be resumed on the ceasing of such employment or on the person's 60th birthday, whichever is the later, but on resumption, the pension will be based on the person's actual reckonable service as a teacher (i.e., the added years previously granted will not be taken into account in the calculation of the pension payment).

III-Health-Retirement

Please note that where an individual has retired from a Civil/Public Service body on the grounds of ill-health his/her pension from that employment may be subject to review in accordance with the rules of ill-health retirement within the pension scheme of that employment.

D. Prior Public Servants

While the default pension terms, as set out in the preceding paragraphs, consist of Single Scheme membership, this may not apply to certain appointees. Full details of the conditions governing whether or not a public servant is a Single Scheme member are given in the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other Provisions) Act 2012. However, the key exception case (in the context of this competition and generally) is that a successful candidate who has worked in a pensionable (non-single scheme terms) capacity in the public service within 26 weeks of taking up appointment, would in general not become a member of the Single Scheme.

In this case such a candidate would instead be offered membership of the pension scheme for non-established civil servants (Non-Established State Employee Scheme). This would mean that the abatement provisions at (c) above would apply, and in addition there are implications in respect of pension accrual as outlined below.

E. Pension Accrual

A 40-year limit on total service that can be counted towards pension where a person has been a member of more than one existing public service pension scheme would apply. This 40-year limit, which is provided for in the Public Service Pensions (Single Scheme and other Provisions) Act 2012 came into effect on 28 July 2012. This may have implications for any appointee who has acquired pension rights in a previous public service employment.

F. Additional Superannuation Contribution

This appointment is subject to the Additional Superannuation Contribution (ASC) in accordance with the Public Service Pay and Pensions Act 2017.

Note: ASC deductions are in addition to any pension contributions required under the rules of your pension scheme. For further information in relation to the Single Public Service Pension Scheme for Public Servants please see the following website: Single Public Service Pension Scheme \(singlepensionscheme.gov.ie\)

Important Notice

The above represents the principal conditions of service and is not intended to be the comprehensive list of all terms and conditions of employment which will be set out in the employment contract to be agreed with the successful candidate.

Application and Selection Process

How to apply

Conscia will be managing all aspects of the recruitment process on behalf of the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman.

All candidates should visit <https://www.consciatalent.com/FSPo> which provides the application form for this competition. Applications received in any format other than the corresponding application form will not be accepted. Therefore, candidates must ensure they use the correct application form. The FSPo expects candidates to complete this application form without the support or use of AI tools as it should reflect the specific relevant personal experience.

Completed application forms should be uploaded at <https://www.consciatalent.com/FSPo> with 'Application for the position of Senior Manager, Investigation Services (AP)' in the subject line.

Only applications fully submitted online will be accepted into the campaign.

Closing Date:

Application must be submitted online at <https://www.consciatalent.com/FSPo> to arrive by 5pm (Irish Time) Friday, 02 January 2026. Applications will not be accepted after the closing date/time.

If you do not receive an acknowledgement of receipt of your application within 24 hours of applying, please email: fspo@consciatalent.com.

You are advised to check your email on a regular basis as email notifications of updates/ tests/ Interviews etc. issued to your address may sometimes be filtered into your Junk/Spam email folders. You are also advised to check all these folders regularly.

The onus is on each applicant to ensure that they are in receipt of all communication from Conscia Limited.

Conscia Limited accepts no responsibility for communication not accessed or received by an applicant.

Selection Process:

The selection process may include the following:

- Shortlisting of candidates based on the information contained in their application
- A written in person exercise/assessment.
- Presentation or other exercises
- Interview(s), either online or in person. The anticipated dates for interview are 29th and/or 30th January 2026.
- Work sample or any other tests or exercises that may be deemed appropriate.

Candidates invited for interview should make themselves available on the date(s) specified by the FSPO and should ensure that the contact details specified on their application form are correct. If you cannot attend on the specified date/time for interview and/or the written exercise, you will be deemed to have withdrawn from the competition.

Shortlisting

Normally the number of applications received exceeds the numbers required to fill existing and future vacancies. While you may meet the eligibility requirements of the competition, if the numbers applying for the positions are such that it would not be practical to assess and/or interview everyone, the FSPO may decide that only a certain number of candidates will be called to interview.

In this respect, the FSPO provides for the employment of a shortlisting process to select a group for interview who, based on an examination of the application forms, appear to be the most suitable for the position. This is not to suggest that other candidates are necessarily unsuitable, or incapable of undertaking the job, rather that there are some candidates who are, prima facie, better qualified and/or have more relevant experience.

Candidates with Disabilities:

If a candidate requires reasonable accommodation to be made at any stage of the selection process, please make this known by stating your requirements by email to fspo@consciatalent.com. Every effort will be made to make the necessary reasonable arrangements to assist you.

Confidentiality:

Subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2014, applications will be treated in strictest confidence.

Other Important Information:

The FSPO will not be responsible for refunding any expenses incurred by candidates. The admission of a person to a competition, or invitation to attend interview, or a successful result notification, is not to be taken as implying that the FSPO is satisfied that such a person fulfils the requirements or is not disqualified by law from holding the position and does not carry a guarantee that your application will receive further consideration.

It is important, therefore, for you to note that the onus is on you to ensure that you meet the eligibility requirements for the competition before attending for interview. If you do not meet these essential entry requirements but nevertheless attend for interview you will be putting yourself to unnecessary effort and/or expense. Prior to recommending any candidate for appointment to this position, the FSPO will make all such enquiries that are deemed necessary to determine the suitability of that candidate. Until all stages of the recruitment process have been fully completed, a final determination cannot be made, nor can it be deemed or inferred that such a determination has been made.

Should the person recommended for appointment decline, or having accepted it, relinquish it or if an additional vacancy arises the FSPO may, at its discretion, select and recommend another person for appointment on the results of this selection process.

Candidates' Rights - Review Procedures in relation to the Selection Process:

The FSPO will consider requests for review in accordance with the provisions of the codes of practice published by the CPSA. The Codes of Practice are available on the website of the Commission for Public Service Appointments <http://www.cpsa.ie/>.

Candidates' Obligations:

Candidates should note that canvassing will disqualify and will result in their exclusion from the process.

Candidates must not:

- knowingly or recklessly provide false information
- canvass any person with or without inducements
- interfere with or compromise the process in any way

A third party must not impersonate a candidate at any stage of the process. Any person who contravenes the above provisions or who assists another person in contravening the above provisions is guilty of an offence. A person who is found guilty of an offence is liable to a fine/or imprisonment. In addition, where a person found guilty of an offence was or is a candidate at a recruitment process, then:

- where he/she has not been appointed to a post, he/she will be disqualified as a candidate; and
- where he/she has been appointed subsequently to the recruitment process in question, he/she shall forfeit that appointment.

Specific candidate criteria:

Candidates must:

- Have the knowledge and ability to discharge the duties of the post concerned
- Be suitable on the grounds of character
- Be suitable in all other relevant respects for appointment to the post concerned and if successful, they will not be appointed to the post unless they:

- Agree to undertake the duties attached to the post and accept the conditions under which the duties are, or may be required to be, performed,
- Are fully competent and available to undertake, and fully capable of undertaking, the duties attached to the position.

Deeming of candidature to be withdrawn:

Candidates who do not attend for interview or other test when and where required by the FSPO, or who do not, when requested, furnish such evidence as the FSPO requires in regard to any matter relevant to their candidature, will have no further claim to consideration.

Data Protection:

As part of the recruitment and job application process, we will collect your Personal Data. It is necessary for us to process your Personal Data in order to assess your job application and/or include you in a recruitment initiative. Ultimately, it may also be necessary for us to process your Personal Data in order to take steps to offer and enter into a contract of employment with you. We may disclose some or all of your Personal Data to the following parties: your previous employer(s) (where you have listed them as your referees (s)); Recruiters (where your application is being handled by a Recruiter); outsourced service providers who assist FSPO with recruitment initiatives and campaigns including but not limited to the Public Appointments Services. Where you are an unsuccessful job applicant, we will retain your Personal Data for a period of up to 12 Months from interview and 12 months from expiration of panel. If you have any concerns about the way your Personal Data is being used or processed by FSPO, please e-mail dataprotection@fspo.ie. Please see our full data protection notice.
